

NALA Membership

APPLICATION PROCESS

Gain Lash Artist Accreditation

1. Review the NALA Membership Agreement.

2. Select your local currency option at checkout. Sign up using your email address and other required information. When you purchase membership your payments will be set up as automatic withdrawals each month. You are guaranteed this price for life, provided you don't cancel. Even when membership fees increase; your fees will never change.

3. Follow the steps on the confirmation page (this will be emailed to you as well).

4. You will be instructed to upload photos of your work according to our photo and video requirements (found in the application), alongside videos that demonstrate your isolation and application technique, and videos that demonstrate your picking technique (no stickies!). You will also need to sign and date our membership agreement. You will be granted two weeks to submit everything.

5. Take advantage of all your membership perks right away! You have full access to the membership site and the private members forum on Facebook even BEFORE you complete your application.

6. Our team will review your application. We review based on many components, such as coverage, adhesive use, symmetry and design, technique and practices, client protection (eye pads and taping), bonding of extensions, isolation, and more.

7. Once approved, our team will officially grant you NALA Accreditation. You will be welcomed with your official Member Certificate with a unique Member ID, Member Badge, your signed copy of the NALA Membership Agreement, a copy of your Application Sheet, and more. We will welcome you to the community and showcase some photos of your work on our social media pages.

8. Our team will provide you with instructions to submit your elements for the NALA Global Directory so we can begin advertising your services to the public.

9. Promote yourself as an Officially Accredited NALA Member. Showcase your certificate in your studio, join the community, receive awesome discounts and other perks, meet like-minded professionals and stand out in the lash industry.
